

IELTS ONLINE PREPARATION WORKSHOPS FOR TEACHERS (ACADEMIC MODULE)

Imperial English UK

For teachers preparing or intending to prepare learners for the IELTS examination (Academic Module)

The IELTS workshops are conducted online through Zoom. This will enable you to attend from the comfort of your home. The aim is to make you aware of what the exam contains, the types of questions, suggested ways of dealing with the different questions and what the examiner is looking for in Speaking and Writing. There will be opportunities for you to share your own preparation tips with fellow teachers.

These workshops are intended for teachers who already prepare students for IELTS but feel they lack support from experts with actual examining experience and knowledge of actual examination procedures. The workshops are also suitable for those who want to move into teaching IELTS.

The IELTS workshops are conducted online through Zoom. This will enable you to attend from the comfort of your home.

When you register you will receive samples of test takers' writing to discuss and assess in the workshops.

Workshops: (2 Hours each)

In the workshops you will cover the following topics:

Workshop 1

- An overview of the IELTS Academic Module.
- The Speaking Test: the marking band descriptors, the three sections and practical tips.

Workshop 4

- IELTS Writing Task 1: processes and maps, suggestions for extending the range of vocabulary and grammar structures.
- IELTS Reading (1): the three sections, the reading skills you need and practical tips.

Workshop 2

- IELTS Writing Task 2: question types, the marking band descriptors, practical tips and text organisation.
- The Listening Test (1): the four sections and examination strategies.

Workshop 5

- IELTS Reading (2): strategies for the question types.
- Review Session (including information about the online exam version).

Workshop 3

- IELTS Writing Task 1: graphs, tables and pie charts, the marking band descriptors, suggestions for extending the range of vocabulary and grammar structures.
- The Listening Test (2): the listening skills you require.

(Each Workshop includes a brief review of the previous session)

Please note that these workshops are for guidance only and may vary according to the needs and interests of the participants.

By the end of the IELTS workshops you will:

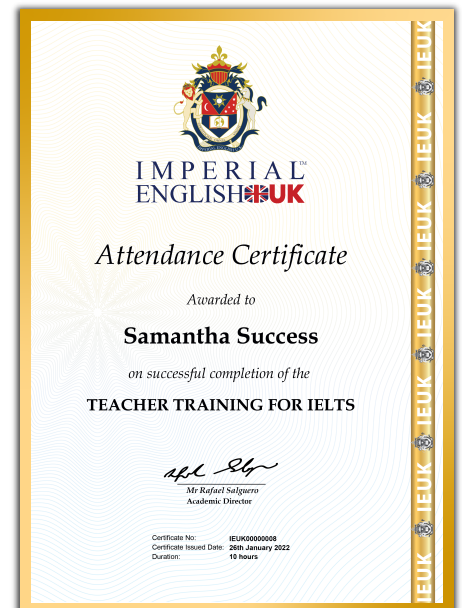

- know what to expect when you take the Academic Module (paper-based or online versions)
- be familiar with the format and content of the Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking tests
- be familiar with strategies and techniques necessary to support your students
- be able to identify specific areas individual students need to focus on
- feel more confident about assessing your students and know about IELTS support websites and YouTube channels available for your continued development.

Registration & Fee:

Please contact our representative for registration, the workshop schedule and the fee.

Additional Information:

We will suggest reliable websites, YouTube channels and published resources. We cannot freely provide copyright published materials. No individual support for participants or assessment of your students' work is provided.
